

The CDS Reference Dictionary

Version 0.8.0 — the controlled vocabularies of the Commerce Data Standard

Field	Value
Generated from	CDS_Reference_Dictionary (package 0.8.0, hash a736cadcbc4b7fb8...) — produced directly from the data files, never edited by hand
Entries	977 entries across 64 vocabularies in 19 chapters
How this book works	Each section is one vocabulary — the answer list for one product question. The field key under each heading is the vocabulary's machine name; each entry shows the customer-facing Name and the <code>code</code> software stores.
Worked example	A navy cushion: the vocabulary Colours (field key <code>colour</code>) answers " what colour is it? ". Your PIM stores the code <code>french_navy</code> ; the product page shows French Navy ; the storefront filter shows its broad family Blue ; a supplier writing " dark navy " matches automatically via the aliases. (The same example with every PIM and Shopify field name spelled out: Setup Runbook, Appendix A.)
Status	Informative starter data (en-GB). On adoption these become your governed dictionaries under CDS-400.

Chapters

1. Colours — Shades and the broad families they file under. A shade belongs to one or two families (first listed = primary).
2. Materials — What things are made of - fibres and substances (cotton, wool, oak, ceramic). How a textile is constructed lives in Chapter 3.
3. Fabrics & Construction — How a textile is made - weaves, knits and constructions (denim, jersey, tulle). Fibres such as cotton and wool live in Chapter 2, Materials: a cotton jersey tee is Material: Cotton + Fabric: Jersey.
4. Care — Descriptive care values (deliberately not the trademarked care-symbol set).
5. Sizing — Sizing systems, not sizes - a size value only means something with its system declared (AU 12, US bra, EU kids height).
6. Apparel Attributes — Fit, style, occasion, pattern, neckline, sleeve and length vocabularies. The style vocabulary is shared across fashion and interiors.
7. Homewares Attributes — Rooms, surface finishes and shapes.
8. Footwear — Styles, heel heights, closures, toe shapes and width fittings. Upper materials reuse Chapter 2.
9. Jewellery & Accessories — Metals, stones, closures and piece styles.
10. Beauty & Personal Care — Skin and hair states, scent families, formulations and finishes. Benefit claims (anti-ageing, hypoallergenic) are excluded by design - they need evidence, not filters.
11. Electronics & Appliances — Brown and white goods: connections, screen technologies, power, mounting, energy-label schemes and battery chemistries. Compliance marks and vendor ecosystems excluded; the regulated compliance scheme codes live in Chapter 19.

12. Sports & Outdoor — The shop-by-sport facet, plus surf wetsuit attributes (style, thickness, zip entry, seam construction). Performance claims, skill levels and vendor fin systems excluded.
13. Toys & Games — Play types and retail age bands. The packaging safety mark (3+) is a compliance label, not filter vocabulary.
14. Pet Supplies — Pet types, life stages, size classes and food forms. Breed lists, health claims and nutrient profiles excluded.
15. Furniture — Assembly types and mattress firmness. Styles live in the Chapter 6 style vocabulary; upholstery reuses Fabrics/Materials; bedding size systems live in Chapter 5.
16. Garden & Outdoor — Sun exposure - a grower-declared growing condition. Plant taxonomies and watering claims deliberately excluded.
17. Food & Beverage — Allergens as the regulated required names of the seeded jurisdictions (each filing under one of the fourteen EU groups as its facet), dietary claim types (claim vocabulary - every value is evidence-gated, never a bare filter), and storage conditions. Nutrition schemes, ingredient names and country-of-origin statements are declared per organisation.
18. Parts, Automotive & Industrial — Relationship types (with their direction, bound through CDS-200 §7A), part origin types, product conditions and the UN dangerous-goods classes and divisions. Vehicle and equipment application vocabularies (ACES VCdb and the like) are licensed and never shipped; the full UN dangerous-goods list is regime-published.
19. Jurisdictions & Regulatory Schemes — Country and sub-national codes, and the regulatory scheme codes used as keys into an organisation's jurisdiction requirement register (CDS-1500 §2.2). A scheme code names an instrument; it is never itself a compliance claim. Codes seeded only by research-candidate register entries are `proposed` until the organisation verifies the instrument (CDS1500-R086).
